

Hold the date: Sunday, April 23rd, 2017, 7:00pm

יום השואה - Yom HaShoah - Holocaust Remembrance Day

Signposts on the Road to Auschwitz

transformation of an ordinary society to murderers

at Congregation Shaaray Shalom

711 Dogwood Avenue

West Hempstead, NY

a light collation will follow the program

Special Guest Speaker:

Irving Roth

Irving Roth, a survivor of Auschwitz and Buchenwald, will recall the demonization of an ordinary society from the perspective of his personal journey starting from his childhood in Czechoslovakia ending at the Nazi death camps.

Mr. Roth is the Director of the Holocaust Resource Center at Temple Judea of Manhasset, New York. He endeavors to convey the lessons that can be learned from his experience in the death camps of Poland, working to ensure that an atrocity like the Holocaust never happens again. Mr. Roth has been the recipient of numerous awards for his work promoting a more accepting and diverse world. His life's mission, to make the world a better place, has earned him the Spirit of Anne Frank Award. A dynamic and engaging speaker, Mr. Roth is a sought-after Holocaust educator throughout Europe, Israel and America.

Together with Congregation Beth Israel, Congregation Shaaray Shalom, Elmont Jewish Center, Malverne Jewish Center & Valley Stream Jewish Center, plan to be part of our Yom HaShoah observance and program. There is no more appropriate way to memorialize the Martyrs of the Shoah and embrace the memories of the Survivors.