

יום השואה - Yom HaShoah

Holocaust Remembrance Day

Thursday

April 12, 2018, 7:00PM

Abraham H. Foxman

a journey from hidden child to champion of freedom

location: Congregation Shaaray Shalom • 711 Dogwood Ave • West Hempstead, NY 11552 516 481 7448

a light collation will follow the program

A community of Shuls, coming together to remember the Shoah

Congregation Shaaray Shalom Elmont Jewish Center Malverne Jewish Center Valley Stream Jewish Center

Born in 1940, Abraham H. Foxman, was saved from the Holocaust by his Polish Catholic nursemaid raising him as a Catholic. Although 14 members of his family perished, his mother and father survived and the three came to American in 1950. He served at the Anti-Defamation League for 50 years, retiring as Executive Director. Mr. Foxman is at the forefront of major issues today including global anti-Semitism, the war on terrorism, and all forms of discrimination, hatred and violence wherever they occur.

Special Guest Speaker:
Abraham H. Foxman

Postwar reunion of Abraham Foxman and his parents, Helen and Joseph Foxman circa 1946 at a DP camp.

welcoming remarks will be delivered by County Executive Laura Curran

Co-sponsored by:

Jewish Community Relations Council of Long Island & Nassau County Commission on Human Rights

